VOL. 1.

SPOUTSPRING, KY., OCT. 10, 1896.

NO. 38.

Clay City is trying to establish a mothly stock sale at that place. The establishment of such sales, we believe, would be a success, and is a move which deserves the support of every farmer in this section as it be untold benefit to them both in buying and selling their stock, as cattle would command as good prices at Clay City, being situated as it is, so near the Bluegrass region; as at Mt. Sterling or Winchester. It would save much time, labor and expense and shrinkage of stock, which our stockmen now have to undergo in driving their stock to market.

Miss Belle and Lydia Adams visited friends in Estill county the past week.... Allen Osborne sold to Bud Christopher eight head of heifers at $8.50 per head. . . . Mrs. Clark Williams, of Irvine, has been the guest of friends here the past week.—Winchester Democrat.

The minutes of the Irvine Association are being issued from this office.

Rev. J. W. Parsons, of Drip Rock, and one of the leading Baptist ministers of the Irvine Association, preached a most interesting sermon at Salem last Monday night. Bro. Parsons was urged to remain a few days with us and continue the meeting, and we are sorry that it was so he could not.

After a stay of twelve months with her aunt, Mrs. Polly Burgher, Miss Fanny Clark has returned to her home at Clinton, Mo.

Miss Fanny is an accomplished young lady, and during her stay in Kentucky she won the admiration of all her acquaintances.

Perhaps no acre in the county has grown so much truck on as small a piece of ground as Mr. H. F. Christopher, who lives about a half mile from town, and who says that he has this season grown upon about one quarter of an acre of ground the following: 10 bushels of potatoes, 5 wagon loads of watermelons, enough cane to make 10 gallons of sorghum, 2 barrels of corn, 50 bundles of oats and now enough grass on the piece of ground to cut a 500lb stack of hay.

For sometime, there has been considerable talk of having a county road established from this place to intersect the Lilly road. This road would be a great benefit to Spoutspring and of great convenience to the traveling public. The road over which the public has to travel to reach this point from that section is very rough and most impossible for a wagon to pass in places. There is a very good road around by the way of Kimbrell's Chapel but which is about two miles farther.

Let all persons interested in the establishment of this road be heard from, go to work and get it put through.

The trouble with a great many young men who want to see life, is that they imagine there is none of it worth seeing by daylight.

Takes It Back.

John H. Mingo, a colored teacher of Fayette county, was some time ago arrested and fined for selling the questions used in the examination of teachers. His sister stated that she obtained the questions from Mrs. Tracy, wife of Superintendent F. P. Tracy, of Powell county. Since that time, she has gone before the local magistrate and made an affidavit that she did not so do.
